Music for Body and Soul

GOD'S CHILDREN SING

An exciting, early childhood music program that emphasizes music education and worship experiences for the young child who is four, five, or six years old and whose parents are members or regular attenders of College Church.

PURPOSE

To teach young children to explore various ways to learn about God and worship Him through singing, rhythm and movement. We emphasize listening to and responding to God's Word, praising Him through singing and music, and expressing joy over God's creation and His plan for creation. Because our program is based on a music and movement curriculum, the children will not be performing in concerts or leading worship services.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

- Singing
- Playing rhythm instruments
- Moving to music
- Listening to God's Word
- Acting out Bible stories
- Singing games
- Prayer

PRAISE

“Young children are able to focus on learning music in a nicely organized structure that is not stressful for them, but fun.”

Linda Chipman

“The kids really enjoy God's Children Sing, and it's therefore natural for them to want to sing in choir. They come in with a great desire to be there, are more tuneful, and have greater all-around musicianship.”

Jennifer Wheatley
