Righteousness and Truthful Witness
Deuteronomy 19:15-21

- A. The Declaration: Moses' Call for Multiple Witnesses in Criminal Legal Cases (v. 15)
1. The Reasonableness of the Principle
 2. The Necessity of the Principle
- B. The Problem (v. 16)
- a. A Malicious Witness
 - b. A False Witness (la'anôt bô sārâ)
- C. The Solution (vv. 17-19a)
1. The accuser and accused appear before YHWH (represented by the priests, functioning as judges; (v. 17).
 2. The Priestly adjudicators are to investigate the matter thoroughly (v. 18a).
 3. The false witnesses is to suffer the punishment of the crime for which he gave a false testimony (vv. 18b-19a).
- D. The Rationale (v. 19b-20)
1. To Purge the People of the Evil (v. 19b)
 2. To Serve as a Deterrent (v. 20)
- E. The Required Disposition (v. 21)
1. No Pity (v. 21a)
 2. A Commitment to Equity (v. 21b)
- F. A Closer Look at the Principle of lex talionis ("law of retaliation")
1. The Form of the talion
 2. Ancient Near Eastern Counterparts
Sumerian "Laws of Ur-Nammu" (2100 B.C.)
Hammurabi Law Code (1750 BC)
 3. Biblical Counterparts
- G. Is this a tit-for tat ethic? (cf. Matthew 5:38-42)
1. According to the rabbis, these directives were never intended to be applied literally.
 2. Milgrom: The message is, whoever injures another person has disfigured the image of God. (Law of blasphemy is linked to lex talionis.)
 3. These are formulaic demands that punishment be proportional or suitable to the crimes; they actually put limits on the punishment.
 4. There is no place for personal vengeance; it is reserved for YHWH (Deut 32:35 and Rom 12:19).
 5. The issue in 19:21 is different; v. 21 fleshes out v. 19.
- H. How may Christians keep this law?
1. When called upon to testify in private or public, in the interest of righteousness the godly will always speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.
 2. We recognize that slander in the courts and in private is an evil that destroys the victim and defiles the community.

D. I. Block

3. We must take decisive action against those who would hurt others through their lies in order to punish the criminal, deliver the victim, purge the nation, and deter others within the community from spreading this cancer.
4. Crimes against a fellow human being are crimes against God.
Proverbs 14:31; Proverbs 17:5; 1 John 4:20
5. When Jesus calls on New Testament believers to turn the other cheek toward those who would abuse them, rather than to retaliate with "eye for eye and tooth for tooth" vengeance (Matt 5:34-42), he is not establishing a new ethic. Rather, he is reminding his followers that the lives of God's redeemed people are governed by a distinctive ethic.
6. The present law is a warning to would-be perjurers against verbal violence.
7. The law of talion neither condones nor promotes a culture of retaliatory violence.

B. Dealing with the Targeted Towns (20:10-18)

- a. Instructions for Distant Campaigns (20:10-15)
- b. Instructions for Near Campaigns (20:16-18)

¹⁰ When you approach a town to attack it, you must first offer its people terms for peace. ¹¹ If they accept your terms and open the gates to you, then all the people inside will serve you in forced labor. ¹² But if they refuse to make peace and prepare to fight, you must attack the town. ¹³ When YHWH your God hands the town over to you, use your swords to kill every man in the town. ¹⁴ But you may keep for yourselves all the women, children, live-stock, and other plunder. You may enjoy the plunder from your enemies that YHWH your God has given you.

¹⁶ In those towns that YHWH your God is giving you as a special possession, destroy every living thing. ¹⁷ You must completely destroy the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, just as YHWH your God has commanded you. ¹⁸ This will prevent the people of the land from teaching you to imitate their detestable customs in the worship of their gods, which would cause you to sin deeply against YHWH your God.

This is how you shall treat
the distant towns
and that are not of the towns of the nations here (v. 15).
