

Short Term Teams 2024

FRANCE

Pray the streets, drink coffee with locals and share the gospel! Join global workers Stanley and Marjorie Okoro in Lille, France, in outreach efforts to engage French nationals in gospel conversations. Speaking French is helpful, though not necessary.

Dates: October 5–13, 2024

Team activities: Evangelism, relational opportunities, English as a Second Language

Skills needed: Willingness to talk to strangers, servant attitude, flexibility, willing to be on the sidelines, when necessary, and pray

Physical requirements: Must be able to walk three (3) miles daily comfortably

Team size: 6–10

THAILAND

Have a heart for kids? Serve global families by discipling their children of all ages during annual retreat in Chiang Mai, Thailand. This is also an opportunity to encourage and support global workers Daniel and Julie and their sons, Ben and Timothy.

Dates: December 28, 2024–January 7, 2025.

Team activities: VBS, discipleship, worship

Skills needed: Love kids (infant through high school), flexibility, servant attitude, ability to plan and/or carry out fun activities and mentor kids

Physical requirements: Must be able to navigate stairs as no elevators are available at the retreat center; possible mildew due to humidity

Team size: 10–20

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1) How much will the trip cost?

Your target support is $3,300 per person.

2) How do I pay for the trip? There are several options or combinations of those options.

- Congregational letter sent by the Missions Office
- Personal contacts outside the College Church family
- Pay for your trip personally, in part or in full. (Certain conditions apply.)

3) What if I don't raise my full support?

This is the beauty of being part of a team! All funds raised go toward the team's expenses. Some will raise more; some will raise less. In rare cases, you may be asked to contribute to a deficit.

4) Why should I consider being part of a short-term team?

- God wants you to be a part of something bigger.
- You'll be pushed out of your comfort zone, totally dependent on God for every need.
- Your worldview will expand.
- You'll get to know other College Church people.
- Our missionaries will be encouraged and blessed.
- You will be blessed.
